b. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any Price Sensitive Information to anyone in public area. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.

c. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought “over the wall” and given confidential information on the basis of “need to know” criteria, under intimation to the compliance officer.

PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

All Directors/ KMP/ Designated Employees/ Connected Persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below.

TRADING PLAN

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading Plan shall:

- I. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- II. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- III. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- IV. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- V. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected;
- VI. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he/she shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

There are no specific trading plans for Samasta since the Company has not listed any Shares in the stock exchanges and has only listed Non-Convertible debentures in the Bombay Stock Exchange (“BSE”) and National Stock Exchange (“NSE”). However, the Insider shall follow the above trading plan when he is dealing in the securities of the Company.

TRADING WINDOW AND WINDOW CLOSURE

- a. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called “trading window”, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.
- b. The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 15 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.
- c. When the trading window is closed, the Specified Persons shall not trade in the Company’s securities in such period.
- d. All Specified Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he/she determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

All Specified Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is up to Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) or 1% of total shareholding, whichever is less, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade.

The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

1. An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
2. An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Employee incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
  - a. That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking.
  - b. That in case the Specified Employee has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
  - c. That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
  - d. That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
3. All Specified Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance (Annexure 3) is given.

4. The Specified Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Annexure 4).

If the order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.

All Specified Persons who buy or sell any number of securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the securities of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

OTHER RESTRICTIONS

The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a period of five years.

1. The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained by the Company, for a minimum period of five years, in such form as may be specified.

2. Continual Disclosure: All Samasta Employees (including Designated Persons) shall disclose to the Company the number of Securities acquired or disposed of within 2 (two) Trading Days of such transaction if the value of the Securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs).

3. Disclosure by other Connected Persons: The Company may at its discretion require any other Connected Person or class of Connected Persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in Securities in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with the Regulations.

4. Disclosure by Company to Stock Exchanges: The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the Stock Exchange within 2 (two) Trading Days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

5. Extension of disclosure: The disclosures required to be made by any person under this Chapter shall extend to such person's Dependents or any other person financially dependent on such person or any person who consults with such person while taking trading decisions. Additionally, the disclosures requirements under this Chapter would be required to be made irrespective of the transaction being pre-approved.

PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Every Specified Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her dependents). Any Specified Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalised and appropriate action may be taken by the Company. Specified Persons who violate the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, etc. The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

Subsequent modification(s) / amendment (s) to SEBI (Prevention of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 shall automatically apply to this Code. The Board reserves the right to modify and/or amend this Code at any time. This Code and subsequent amendment(s) thereto, shall be published on the web-site of the Company.
